Featured Speakers/Sessions

Dr. Celina Peerman

Dr. Celina Peerman serves as an organizational behavior specialist with over 24 years of experience from front line to senior level positions, in a wide range of industries and organizations, including higher education. She is passionate about engaging our human resources in new ways in order to achieve even better organizational results.

Celina's focus is to provide quality training and services that directly contribute to service for all stakeholders and in particular the retention of front-line staff and strength of first-line supervisors. Her passion is for how people behave at work; the good, the bad and the worst. Celina's style has been described as dynamic noting the ability to draw in even the most resistant attendees through real life examples and humor.
